dedication

MR. ROBERT ARNZEN

As the "Man of the Decade," Coach has graced our halls with his charming smile and winning spirit. In addition to his prowess as a basketball coach, he has also been a dynamic teacher, friend, and confidante. That SJH may retain Coach Robert Arnzen within its halls for many years to come is the dedicatory prayer of the students of St. John!

TRIBUTE

The Reverend Thomas W. Kuhn
Principal

As a Friend, you sought our special interests.

As a Teacher, you guided us intellectually.

While directing athletics and the class play, you instilled in us a deep sense of loyalty and co-operation.

As a Priest, you fostered our spiritual development.

As our Principal, throughout the past three years, you nurtured us both in mind and in heart.

We shall always cherish, you, Father Kuhn, as our exemplary man of character; truly, Another Christ!

For all this and countless more, we extend our sincere thanks and gratitude.

Please keep us in your prayers, Father Kuhn.

The Most Reverend
George J. Rehring, S.T.D.,

Guess who? Guess what?

THE CREST Staff takes pride in presenting the Blue Jay Coaches. Left to right: Coach Robert Arnzen, head basketball and assistant football coach, has taught at St. John since 1950. He has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Physical Education from the University of Dayton.

Coach William Ricco, head football coach and assistant basketball coach, came to St. John in 1958. Mr. Ricco also has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Physical Education from the University of Dayton. The football record for both 1958 and 1959 was 3-6. Coach Ricco's outlook for 1960 is "Potential to be the best football St. John has had."

Coach John Yerick, auxiliary coach at St. John for the past four years, attended Bluffton College, Bluffton, Ohio, where he majored in Physical Education.

Seven Blue Jays converge to de-feather a T-Bird.

Cheer Queens for the 1959 Football Season included the following peppy sextet: clockwise from the top: Marie Buettner, Frances Wiecher, Joyce Kill, Mary Jane Friemoth, Carol Brickner, Margaret Pohlman.

Many years from now these girls will have happy memories of the times they led the St. John cheering section in their blue and gold outfits, waving their brightly colored pom-poms in rhythm with the cheers.

Never to be forgotten will be the pep rallies before each game, the bonfire rally before the L.C.C. game, their first appearance leading the S.J.H. crowd, standing in the rain and mud--loyal to the end--at the Fremont St. Joe game, and the out-of-town games. We're sure that Marie won't soon forget the L.C.C. game; Mary Jane, the practice sessions; Peggy and Frannie, the sock-hops after the game. Carol won't forget the night she nearly broke her neck trying to turn a cart-wheel; Joyce will always remember the time she tried to do a cheer while she was standing in the mud. The happiest memory, however, for all of them was the thrill of the Blue Jays' first touchdown.

"Rover, Red Rover, let the T-Birds come over."

Principal Father Thomas Kuhn and Coach Robert Arnzen pose with the 1960 Varsity Cagers who displayed unflagging perseverance throughout the court season, When the chips were down, these Jays were up!

First Row: John Grone, Bill Lauf, Bob Gengler, Terry Odeweller, and Gene Renner.

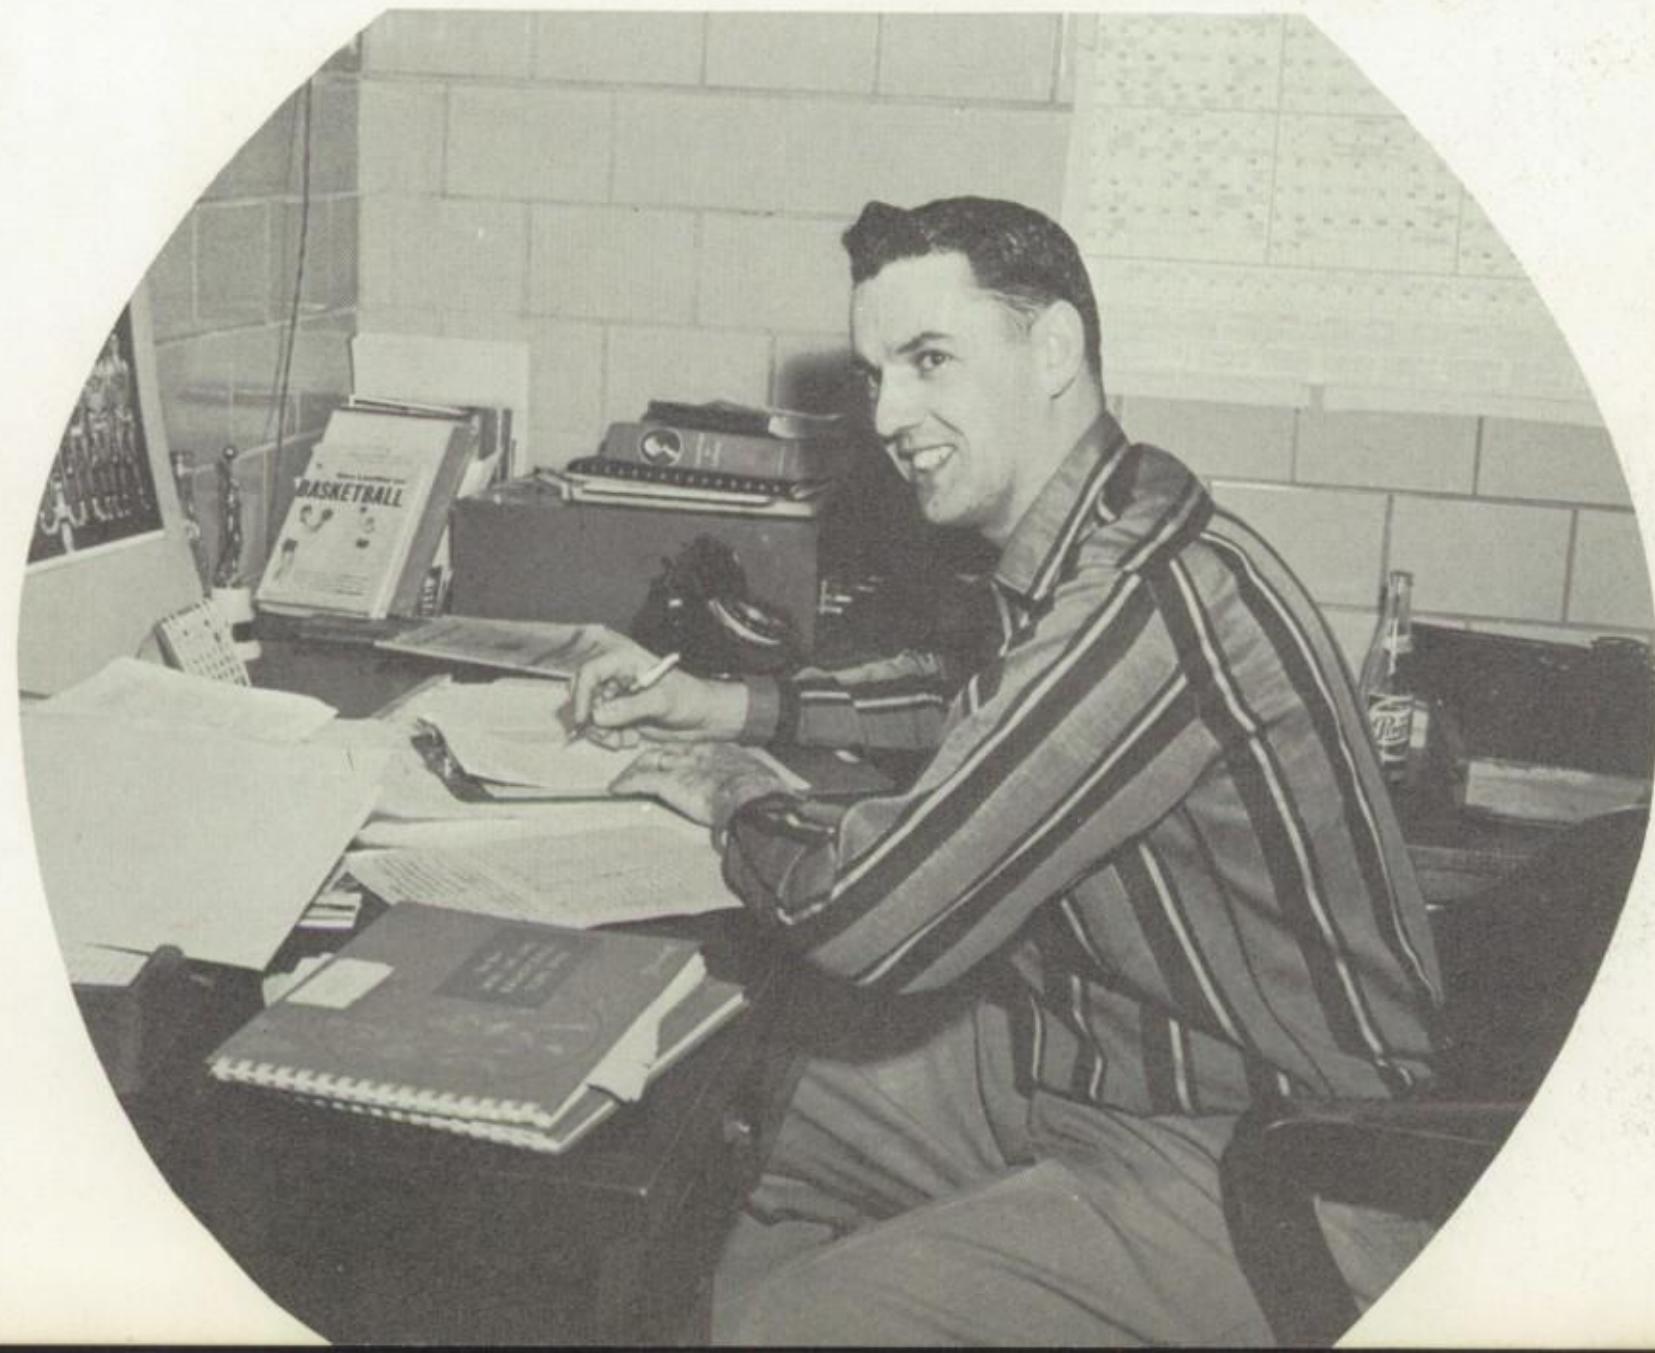

Second Row: Father Kuhn, Ken Mueller, Dan Rupert, Arnie Wienken, and Coach Arnzen.

Coach Bob Arnzen and his winning smile really belong together whether in or out of season.

Here Coach Arnzen is "the man behind the scenes" working for the welfare of St. John and the Blue Jays.

the 1960 Cage Sked.

Only two feet more, Arnie!

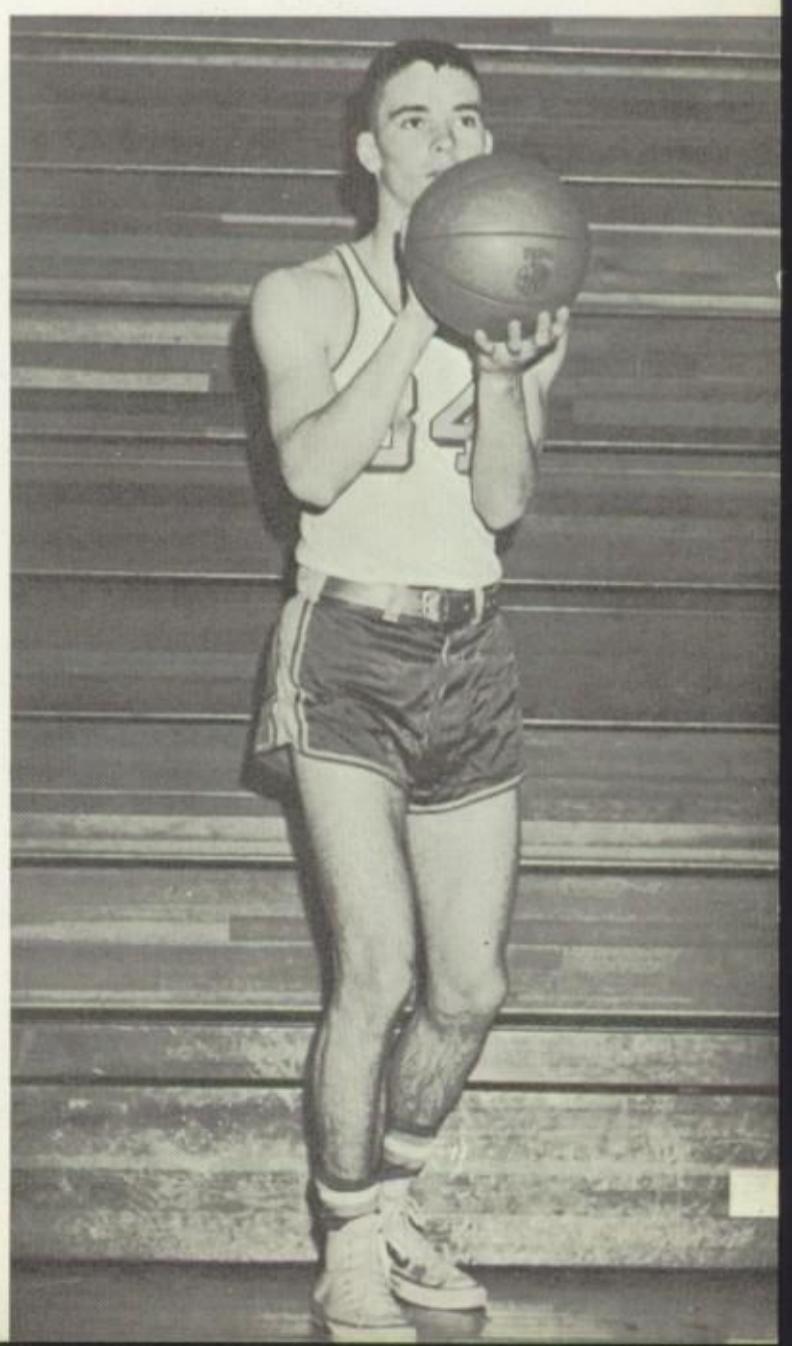

Co-Captain Bob Gengler is a Landecker man. A three-year varsity player, Bob hit constantly with a jump shot. Hampered with a knee injury early in the season, Bob needed some time to play his brand of ball.

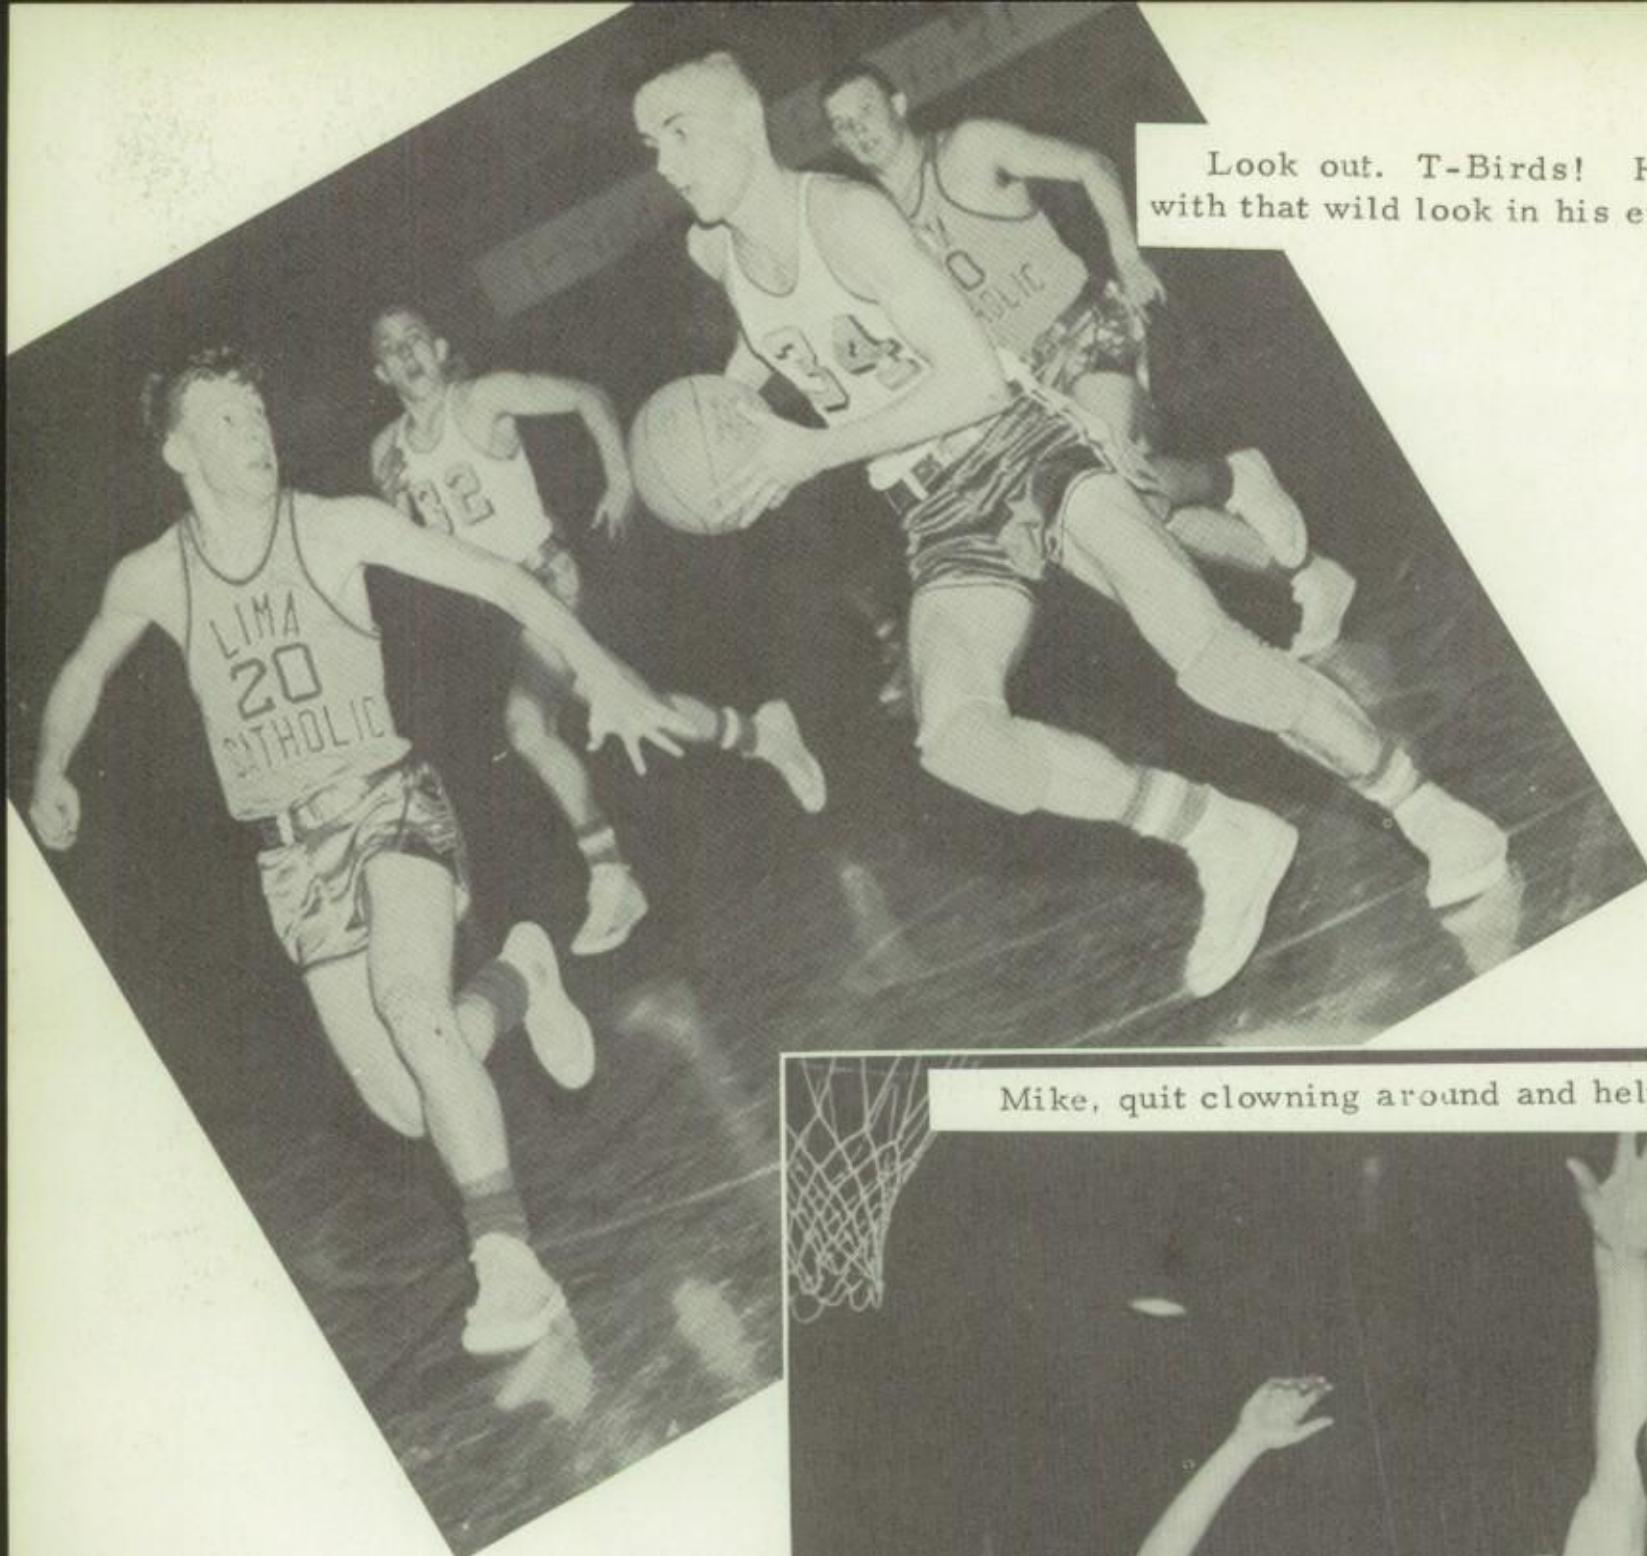

Co-Captain Bill Lauf played his second year of varsity ball. Early in the season, Bill injured his knee and as a result was sidelined for the remainder of the season. Bill played good ball before his injury.

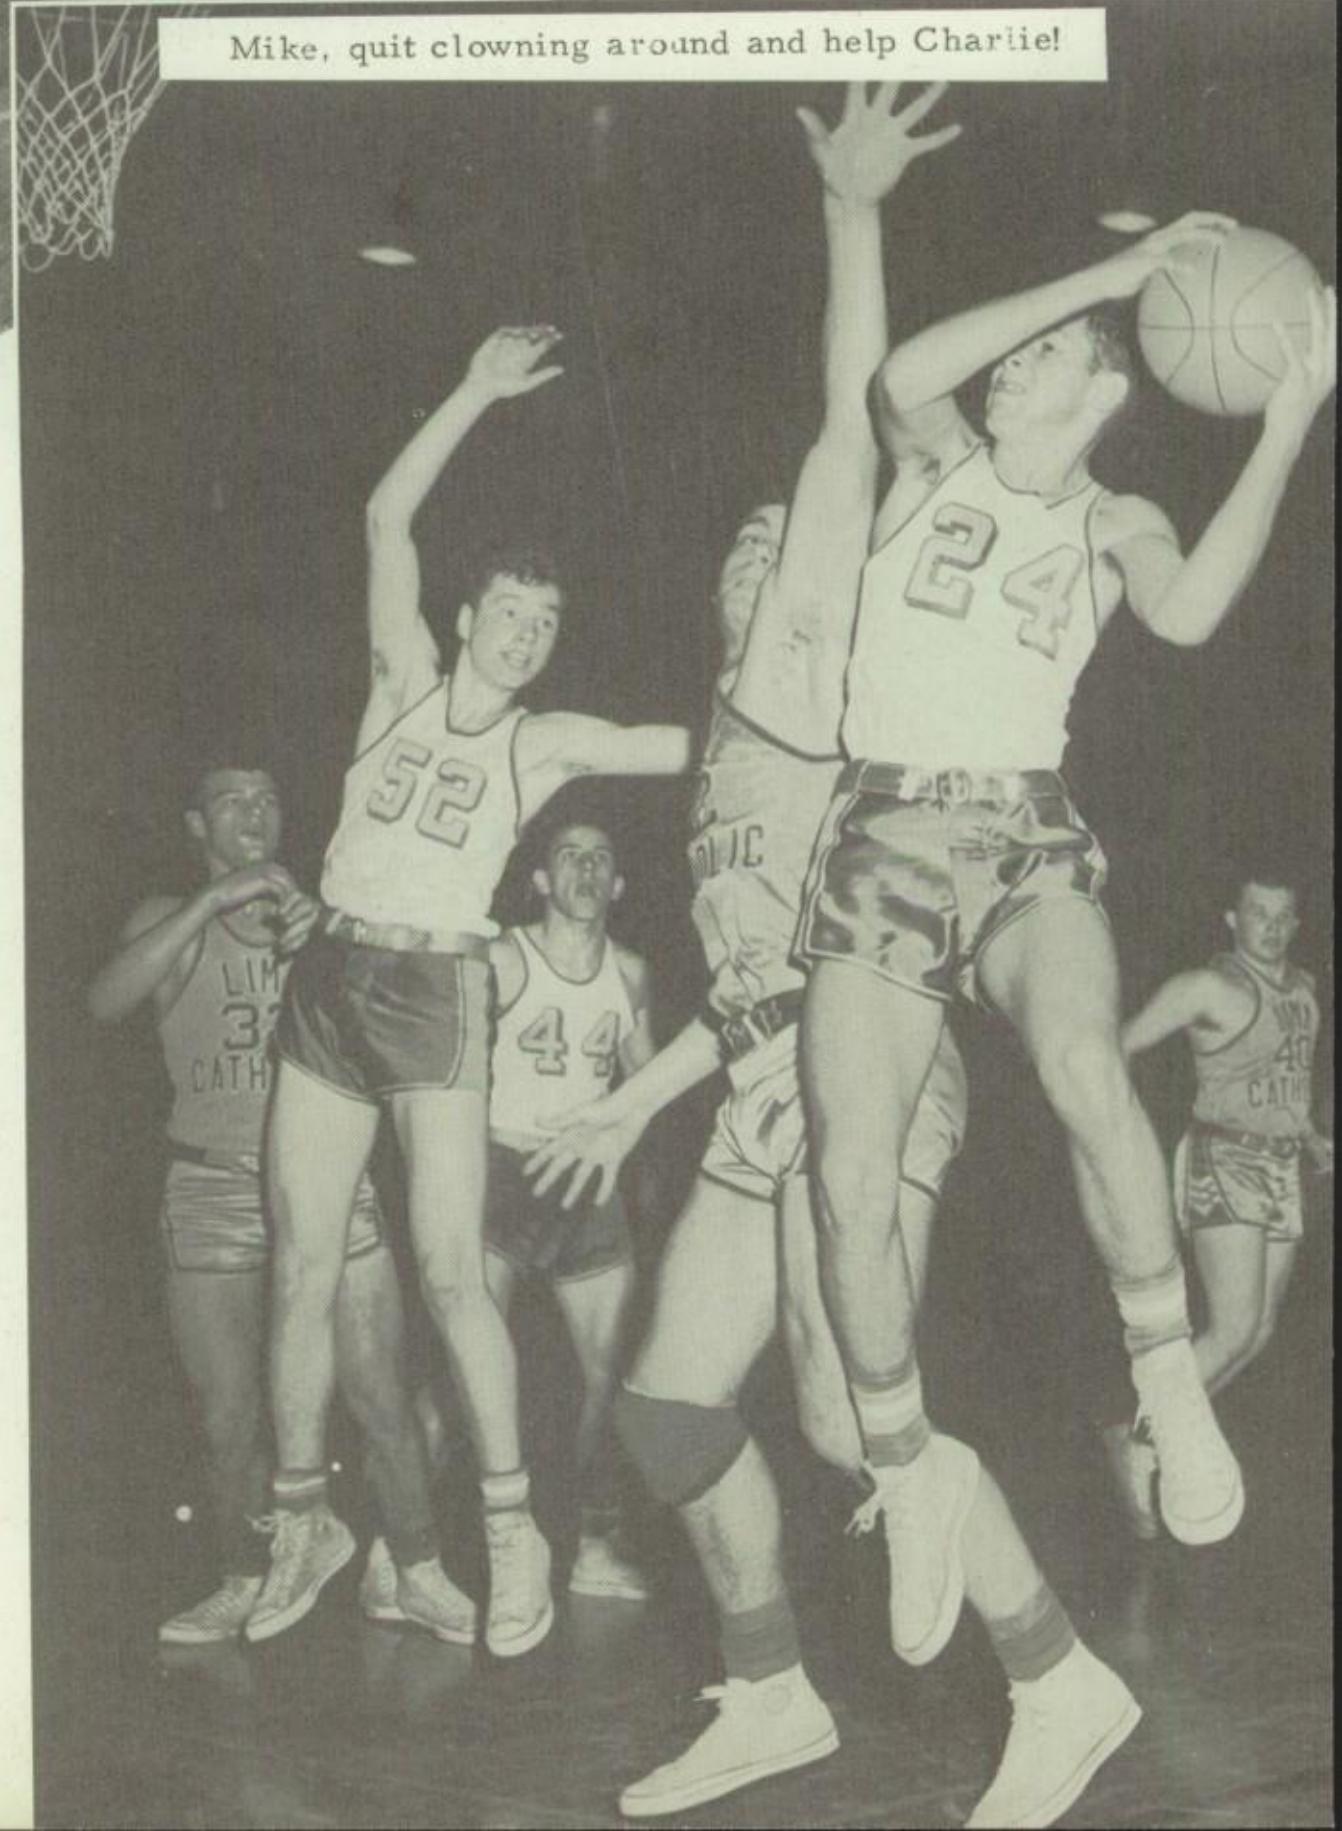

Terry Odenweller, also a three-year varsity man, ranked sixth man in his Junior year. This year he played heads-up ball. His passing and shooting technique reached a new high during the last season.

Look out. T-Birds! Here comes "T. O." with that wild look in his eyes.

"Raise that score higher, higher, higher!"
shout the varsity cheerleaders.

Top Row: Joyce Schmersal, Margie Horstman, Arnie Baldauf;

"Touch your heel, touch your toe. Come on, reserve cheerleaders. let's go!"

Two fellows who made up the final touches for the basketball team are Phil Hall and Dave Wiechart, team managers.

Principal Father Thomas Kuhn and Coach Bob Arnzen discuss the possibility of the Jays' moving into Class-A ball next year.

The Crest Staff couldn't resist this prize shot of the famous St. John Blue Jay! Adding interest to the picture are Virginia Osting, (Muscles) Bob Gengler, and Denny Kill.

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of--baseball." Batting-up for the season are row 1: Terry Odenweller, Urb Shumaker, Bob Gengler, Bill Lauf, Bob Thitoff, Nick Yochum, and Fred Weicher; row 2: Mike Stepleton, Tim Drewyore, Jim Fischer, Jim Neumeier, Bob Wilcox, Jim Lang, Joe Seffernick, and Dave Helmkamp.

homecoming queen

All Hail to the Homecoming Queen! SJH's own royalty, the Armstrong-Joneses, alias Queen Therese Kimmet and James Williams, her escort, proceed to the throne for the evening's festivities.

Key moment of the year came to Queen Therese Kimmet as Bob Gengler and Bill Lauf, senior class officers, crown her Homecoming Queen. Student Council President Jim Williams, her escort, looks on.

Number 37 catches the lime-light. May I Have the next dance, Dolly?

Nice going there,
Queen Therese!

Homecoming festivities begin at the Recreation Field. (Cold, Kay and Marcia?)

CORONATION

Crowned for the second time! This time by football co-captains Bill Lauf and Allyn Wiechart.

Queen Therese extends her vote of gratitude to all who made her evening so "terrific" an experience.

MISSISSIPPI melody

SENIOR OPERETTA

"Won't you be my girl friend?" proposes Jim Williams to Bobbi Patthoff, (Tom and Becky).

"Yes, I'll be your girl friend!" announces Lynn Griffis to Fred Weicher and the audience, (Susy and Sidney).

Strains of "Mississippi" brought the Mississippi Troupe trouping onto the stage.

"I'd like to correspond with you!" says Ronnie Pohlman to Janice Hoersten, (Puddin-head and Ella Mae).

"Mary...society will say Marie" sings Bob Gengler to Marcia Altman, (Steamboat Sam and Mary).

"Midnight in the graveyard..." Dave Etzkorn, Don Smith, and George Imber, (Doc Robinson, Muff Potter, and Injun Joe).

"Mary...old pal of mine" croon Louie Lause, Ed Klaus, Ralph Mueller, and Ronnie Noonan, (the barbershop quartet).

"Way Down Yonder in New Orleans" welcomed the Island Queen Chorus and Linda Westrich, (Mississippi Belle).

"Boys will be boys!" seems to be the agreement of Kaysie Weigle, Carolyn Gerschutz, Liz Beecher, and Judy Dean, (Widow Douglas, Sereny Harper, Miss Watson, and Aunt Polly).

"Turkey in the Straw" whirled the New Orleans Chorus off its feet!

"Sailing" along with the "Mississippi Melody" pirates.

Amid garlands of flowers, flanking a lovely altar, Mary was traditionally crowned Queen of May.

"Light a candle in the corridor, the Little King will come," sing out five members of the Glee Club who pose for the candid camera in preparation of the Concert of Carols.

Senior boys under Father Thomas Kuhn's supervision redecorated Father Otto Bredeick's monument in the St. John Cemetery.
